From frost and wind, we're now looking forward to some sunshine. We have all been inside our cosey houses looking through our stamps. Some vendors have been very busy having an early spring clean. You will find some wonderful material from a collector who has been collecting for a lifetime but has decided it is time to let them go. This gives people a chance to tap into some lovely material. Countries that have been broken down are Falklands, St Helena, Ascension, Tristan with some more to come. We have received feedback on the Album pages section we offer. Some people have commented on the material being in mixed condition which is to be expected given the prices the lots are offered at. This does not mean there are not gems to be found but they are generally going to be in mixed condition.

All the normal sections with lots of new material throughout. Mail out of purchased lots will go back to normal. Sorry for any delays on the last auction, but I won my bowls tournament.
