Well, we are coming out of high temperatures and brown grass (unless you were lucky and didn't have a hosepipe ban) where we were higher than the Med on a few days. Now we can look forward to short days and cold nights. You put your shorts away and dig out your thermals.

This auction we have a selection of Accessories (lots 156-60) which include Royal Mail cover albums, spring back albums and the normally expensive 2 post albums (SG Plymouth). Some are new and others second hand but in generally good condition. There is a literature section (lots 167-74) which includes many useful Great Britain reference books.

The Album Page Section is an End of Summer Special where they are all estimated at £5. These lots are from a lifetime worldwide collection broken down to units. With the remainder in lots 146 & 149. There are many other useful lots for sorting or picking from, ready for those cold winter nights. We have all the usual sections with singles and collections, mint and used. The Postal History section has World, Airmail, Great Britain and Zeppelins. With lots of interesting covers with a story waiting to be told. This auction has many general hole fillers, to display pieces, that suit most collectors and dealers alike. Enjoy looking through the catalogue and if you find something, bid strong and don't miss out. If there is nothing of interest this time we are already building up the next auction, so you never know what is coming up.
